

My privacy is important to me. Please do not preempt more restrictive do not call rules with an FCC regulation. In this era where President Bush keeps talking about people having choices in areas such as Social Security, preempting New Jersey's do not call law would be ludicrous - if you can't trust me to decide who I want to call me, how can you trust me to make wise retirement investments?